Leading specialist ferry news resource online helps travellers to enjoy tickets, routes and more

20 April 2010 – Taking a holiday by boat has become a more and more popular way of travelling for many people and travellers are able to enjoy in-depth news and resources thanks to website ChannelFerries.co.uk. The specialist online resource provides news and resources for cheap ferries online.

Many more people today like to travel by ferry when going abroad, and the leading website can help them to do so thanks to its in-depth resources. The site was bought and re-launched by leading online travel specialist ASAP Ventures one year ago.

The site offers users news about ferries to France and far more on top of this, including more news on ferry routes. ChannelFerries.co.uk allows tourists to get hold of news and views on many favourite resorts around the world as well.

ChannelFerries.co.uk carries news and information on lines like Brittany Ferries, Irish Ferries, P&O Ferries, Stena Line Ferries, Hover Speed Ferries and more. Travellers are also able to get their hands on information on ports in England, Scotland, Spain, Italy, Ireland, Turkey and Greece, so finding information on Portsmouth to Le Havre ferries is simple.

Gareth Robinson, spokesperson for ChannelFerries.co.uk, commented, "We've had an excellent year this year since acquiring and re-launching Channelferries.co.uk, and tourists really do benefit from having all the latest ferry news and information in one place."
