Sometimes we need to get away from it all. Sometimes we need to get away from it all at a place that will pamper both our body and mind. Spa holidays continue to be popular in today's hectic world, and Expedia serves up the best spa hotels in London, Hong Kong and Bangkok. There are 36 spa hotels in London listed on Expedia, with Bangkok hotels that classify themselves as spa hotels close behind at 32. Expedia also lists 15 spa hotels in Hong Kong. A traveler looking to take a spa holiday in one of these three cities need only go to Expedia to research and book her travel.

May 2010 – Picking the perfect hotel can make or break a spa holiday. After all, the point of a spa holiday is to stay at a hotel that excels at pampering its guests. If the spa hotel is less than luxurious, then it disappoints the guest not only as an accommodation, but on the pampering front as well. Expedia has a category of hotel listings just for this type of holiday, with spa hotels in London, Hong Kong and Bangkok among the offerings.

A holiday planner simply goes to Expedia and selects the hotel guide for the city she wants to visit. For example, if she goes to the London Hotel Guide, she will find 36 spa hotels in London to check out. From there, she can narrow her search again by star ratings – 18 of the spa hotels in London on Expedia are five star – and by area of the city and hotel brand. Clicking into a hotel listing delivers extensive information about the spa hotel, including a list of hotel and room amenities, onsite dining options, hotel policies, and, of course, nightly rates and any additional fees. The planner also can look at photos of the hotel and its rooms, take a virtual tour, plus read insider tips and traveler reviews of the spa hotels in London.

In the hotel guide for Bangkok, Expedia breaks out 32 spa hotels. These Bangkok hotels are available in list or map view, allowing the planner to look for a spa hotel near attractions on her must-see list, for those breaks between spa treatments. Same goes for spa hotels in Hong Kong, of which Expedia lists 15.
