Cirque du Soleil, the famous alternative touring circus show, is taking its Saltimbanco show to the Irish capital of Dublin this summer, prompting leading online hotel room booker DirectRooms.com.

Saltimbanco is Cirque du Soleil's oldest act and has been around for a long time now. Culture fans in and around Dublin can look forward to seeing the show when it arrives in the city for a run on July 7 this year. DirectRooms.com expects Dublin hotels to see great business as people travel from all over to see the show.

Over the years the Saltimbanco show has been seen by hundreds of thousands of fans across the globe and the act is designed to be interpreted of a celebration of existence and life.

The show will be staged at the O2 hall in Dublin and tickets are selling fast ahead of the show beginning its run. The tickets can be purchased in advance online and prices are of two levels, 35 Euros or 69 Euros for the better seats.

Lek Boonlert, head of marketing at DirectRooms.com, comments, "The Saltimbanco spectacular is popular all around the world and as Cirque du Soleil's oldest show always attracts visitors wherever it tours. With that in mind we expect there to be higher demand for hotel rooms in the Irish capital around the tour so booking a room well in advance of heading to Dublin makes sense."
