MyMaltaInfo.com, the comprehensive online travel guide for the Maltese Islands, has introduced exclusive deals and special offers on hotel accommodation in Malta. The website forms part of the MyDestinationInfo.com franchise, a fast-growing international network of online travel portals with the objective of making unique online offers on accommodation readily available across all of its global holiday destinations.

The new special offers are made possible thanks to the MyMaltaInfo.com team which is based in Malta and who are in constant day-to-day contact with the local hospitality community. As a result of being based in Malta, near to the businesses, the MyMaltaInfo.com team is ideally placed to understand the region and be able to source the best rates and special offers on Malta accommodation, ensuring that visitors to the online travel guide will benefit from exclusive deals not available anywhere else on the internet.

The user-friendly booking facility on MyMaltaInfo.com is powered by AddaJet, an innovative online booking engine, which has partnered the MyDestinationInfo.com franchise to launch its product across the whole international network. The AddaJet system also allows for a one stop shopping cart solution so that visitors can view what is available in the area and then book themselves hotels in Malta, flights, airport transfers, tours and excursions in real-time and without ever needing to leave the website.

Commenting on the launch of the new booking engine and exclusive deals, owner and director of MyMaltaInfo.com, Niki Bilocca said: "This is another clear example of how a website put together by local experts but forming part of a global franchise, greatly benefits Malta's tourism industry. Large and small players in the Maltese hospitality business are being presented with an opportunity to effortlessly promote special and seasonal offers to a global audience which they would otherwise not have access to. In the meantime, our online visitors benefit from the option of a number of exclusive deals on accommodation in Malta."

The online special offers range from discounts on hotel prices, free nights, room upgrades and other advantageous deals for online customers.

The launch of the new online booking engine together with the integrated special offers on accommodation is another major milestone for MyMaltaInfo.com and its continued endeavours to offer the best possible travel guide to anyone planning a trip to the Mediterranean island of Malta.
