

Letters From Santa 2010 Now Get Free Personalized Santa Greeting Video

Released on: November 16, 2010, 9:19 am

Author: Santa Himself

Industry: Entertainment

Packagefromsanta.com announces 2010, Letters from Santa will get a Free Personalized video Greeting from Santa himself. It is very important to Santa to make sure that each and every child who sends him a letter gets a personalized letter from Santa back from Santa himself. It is November, and Santa and his Christmas Mice are already hard at work going through all the wonderful letters to Santa they are receiving from children all around the world. This year Santa wants to return every letter with an extra special personalized greeting from Santa. Now with every letter from Santa you order, your child will also receive a free personalized video greeting from the big jolly man himself.

Each greeting is created special just for your child, and it comes straight from the North Pole with the rest of your package from Santa. Your personalized letter from Santa order is all you need to receive the free Santa greetings video offer.

If you have had a letter from Santa sent to your child before, than you are familiar with the quality of product we offer. We pride ourselves on making the very best personalized letter from Santa available. Now is the perfect time to order your child a Christmas surprise they will never forget. Here is how to order your letter and get your free personalized greeting on video.

First, log onto your computer at home and go to packagefromsanta.com to get started. Browse through our site to view the different packages from Santa that we offer. Place your order on our site and wait for your package to arrive. Free shipping is included on all orders, and new this year you will get a free personalized Santa greeting on video. We offer many different packages and products that will give your kids the thrill of a lifetime. Watch them light up with joy as they open a letter from Santa that is addressed just to them. Inside is a personalized letter from Santa printed on official North Pole letterhead and stamped with the official North Pole gold seal. You can also order other things from the North Pole like Mrs. Claus' famous sugar cookies, a signed letter from Rudolph or an autographed picture of Santa. Or even reindeer food to put out on Christmas night or a jar of genuine magic North Pole snow. Every letter from Santa is made special just for your child.

Make your child believe again or simply ignite their imagination this year with a personalized letters from Santa and free video greeting. In our low priced gold package (with free shipping) your child will receive a letter from Santa, complete with Santa's special North Pole return address label, a gold foil label addressed to your child, and stamped with a genuine North Pole stamp. Not to mention that every personalized letter from Santa includes a free video greeting made just for your child. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to watch your child's face light up when they see Santa Claus himself tell them they are on the nice list this year and he will be stopping by your house on Christmas.

Contact Details : <http://www.packagefromsanta.com>

~~~~~

Press release distributed via EPR Network (<http://express-press-release.net/submit-press-release.php>)