We have reached the end of the 'noughties' and the beginning of a New Year and new decade. With the snow spell looking to be over and the ice conditions left behind in 2010, this January is the perfect month to start venturing outside again, and Outdoor Look are with you every step of the way.

Outdoorlook.co.uk, a leading online outdoor clothing retailer, have been serving the outdoor community for a little over a year and have already installed themselves as the UK's leading stockists of discount outdoor wear.

Selling everything from thermal jackets to walking boots from established brands such as Regatta, Craghoppers and Helly Hansen, Outdoor Look is your online destination to get you suited, booted and ready to take on the terrain.

"January is often the start of the of many people's training schedules, and with numerous marathons on the horizon, it's a time when a lot of people get outside again," said Brookes

"It's also a great time of year for walking and trekking and breathing in the fresh winter air. Our ranges of walking shoes have always proved popular this time of year, and with Merrell now being stocked at discounted prices, we expect the range to be even more popular."

Indeed, without comfortable walking shoes or boots the whole experience can be ruined, so Brookes has made a determined effort to continually refresh the range in order to cater for everyone.

"The Merrell range is the latest addition to our collection and is our premium brand. The Merrell Chameleon shoe is currently our best seller and the Gore-Tex shoes are the perfect durable shoe for a walk or hike," said Brookes.

"Outdoor Look also stock Merrell lined boots perfect for winter and work to keep your feet warm during the colder climates."

Outdoor Look are UK based supplier of outdoor clothing who pride themselves on offering an extensive range of quality garments at unbeatable discounted prices. As well as Merrell, Outdoor Look supply a number of leading brands such as Craghoppers and Regatta, offering products to suit all ages, sizes and needs.
