Web-based business group announces triple site launch based on consumer advice and information

26 February 2011 – The online business network ASAP Ventures Ltd has added to its growing network with three new sites; FinancialAdvisors.org.uk, Government.org.uk and LadiesBoots.co.uk. They are designed to offer consumer advice and information to the UK's web-users and cover a wide variety of subject matters.

Managing one's money and financial situation is a topic on many people's minds right now, and with ASAP Ventures' new site FinancialAdvisors.org.uk there are ways to find financial advice. Financial advisors are expensive to employ, which is why the new site will be popular with people looking to organise their money more efficiently without wasting it.

To find out about the government, at both a national and a local level, the new Government.org.uk site from ASAP Ventures is chocked full of important information. The latest news from public services, education and defence can be found on the site, keeping web-users up to date on pressing issues.

Ladies boots are bought all year round and are very popular as both a fashion item and for function during the colder months. The latest fashionable boots, such as Ugg Boots or leather boots, can be found on the LadiesBoots.co.uk site from ASAP, as well as some great bargains too.

Derek Paulson, media representative and spokesperson for ASAP Ventures, said: "At ASAP Ventures we have launched three new sites dedicated to important subjects which people in the UK are interested in. They fit our network of online businesses well for providing up to date advice and information on a range of topics."
