DirectRooms.com invites music lovers to check out the 16th Annual Twilight at Taronga 2011 Summer Concert Series, which will be taking place all summer long between 22 January and 2 April 2011. The concerts will take place at the Taronga Zoo, and hotels-in-Sydney can place music lovers close to the fun.

Among the acts slated for this year are a Fleetwood Mac tribute band playing on the 25th and 26th March at 7:00 pm, James Morrison on 1st and 2nd April at 7:00 pm, and Caroline O'Connor on 11th and 12th February at 7:00 pm.

In addition to these concerts, the festival will also include several themed musical nights. One such night is 80s night. On 18th and 19th February Paul Gray and Erik Wideman will bring back hits from artists such as Culture Club, the B52s, Duran Duran, The Bangles and more.

On 29th January the series will feature Beatlemania night. Later, the concert series will pay tribute to The Rolling Stones and Fleetwood Mac on 5th March and 25th and 26th March, respectively.

Guests to the concert must enter through the main gate of the zoo. For $15 and a standard zoo entry ticket, attendees can see both the zoo itself and the concerts going on after dark.

Space at the venue is unreserved. Guests are advised to bring a picnic blanket or chair to sit on. Beverages and snacks will be available for purchase at the event.

As the concert stage is covered, the concerts will go on despite the weather. However, guests should be aware that the lawn and seating areas are not covered.
