Top UK hotel company Bespoke Hotels has announced that as of 7th March and just in time for the Gold Cup, The Frogmill Hotel near Cheltenham will become part of its incredible collection of luxury accommodation.

The Frogmill is a boutique hotel set in a picturesque private estate in the heart of the Cotswold countryside, just six miles from the famous Cheltenham racecourse. Bespoke Hotels' newest country hotel offers visitors the choice of 29 rooms, a capacious banqueting hall for 200, and boasts luxury features such as open log fires, a private sun terrace, and an intimate restaurant seating 40 guests.

This luxury hotel will be run by general manager Oliver Cooke and head chef Adam Murray, both of whom have extensive experience in hospitality, having come from The Bath Spa. Murray is famed for using only the freshest and most local ingredients in his cooking, and for creating spectacular three-course meals, as well as traditional English cream teas.

Bespoke Hotels' latest addition is perfect for weddings, golf breaks, spa weekends, and romantic getaways and to celebrate their refurbishment, they are offering guests room rates from £49 per night including full English breakfast. Book to stay in March or April to receive this offer.

The Frogmill is also offering diners the chance to sample Murray's new menu from £25 per person – please visit <http://www.bespokehotels.com/frogmill> for more information and to book.
