DirectRooms.com can announce that Australian musician, songwriter and comedian Tim Minchin has confirmed that he will tour the United Kingdom and perform his biggest live show to date in Aberdeen.

The tour will bring Minchin to the Aberdeen Exhibition and Conference Centre on the 20th of April 2011.

As a UK based artist, Minchin is well-known for performing in front of sell-out crowds around the world. The show in Aberdeen will consist of brand new songs as well as well-known classics. The performance of Minchin will be enhanced by a 55-piece orchestra.

Minchin is most well known for his work with the Royal Shakespeare Company's new musical version of Roald Dahl's 'Matilda' and is a radio performer on BBC Radio 2, starring in a comedy sitcom. His acclaimed 9-minute beat poem 'Storm' is being made into an animated feature to be released in October.

The show is certain to include comedy, music and songs, creating an evening of entertainment for all those wishing to see an acclaimed songwriter and comedian in action.

Tickets for this event cost £35 GBP plus booking fee.

Aberdeen hotels provide some of the accommodations in all of Scotland. The historic city is filled with culture, entertainment and plenty of activities for people of all ages who choose to visit.

Anyone wishing for more information on the show is encouraged to contact the Aberdeen Exhibition and Conference Centre.
