Lone Tree, CO., March 2011- ShadesCases.com, a premier online retailer specializing in iPhone cases and iPod Cases, provide the essentials in protecting these devices while simultaneously giving a sleek appearance. With most cases having an unattractive appeal, or causing extra bulk, ShadesCases has reinvented the product with the consumer in mind.

iPhones and iPods are becoming everyday commodities that many use throughout the entire day. In a technologically advance world where many feel lost without certain electronics, it becomes apparent and necessary to protect these types of products. Whether it be from normal wear and tear, or added security from potential accidents, cases are a must-have.

ShadesCases has designed their cases with the consumer in mind. Not only do they provide the ultimate protection, but also posses a sleek and modern appeal. Thus, one no longer has to be concerned about the unattractiveness of a case, or the extra bulk that some may have. According to customer testimonials, ShadesCases have been described as the, "Best Case Ever!" and "A Fantastic Purchase." With full protection and a variety of stylish casings, it is no wonder Shades has developed and maintained a large consumer following.

The online retailer provides cases for all iPhone and iPod products from varying generations and gigabyte size such as the latest iPod Touch 4G to the first generation iPod nano.

ShadesCases carries a variety of cases ranging in 12 different amazing colors, thus one is sure to find the perfect case.

About Shades

Shades were designed to stand out from the bulk and impractical cases on the market today. With many products adding an awkward appearance and added weight, the designers at ShadesCases decided to create a more suitable casing while still maintaining the ultra protection. ShadesCases also operates with the environment in mind. The company believes in supplying low cost, innovative products while providing quality customer service and considering the environment's well-being. For more information on ShadesCases or to view the product selection visit ShadesCases
