It is often difficult actually choosing presents for your mother. What do they need? What do they actually like? This problem can lead to the standard last-minute buying of a bargain box of chocolates or a sad-looking bunch of flowers. Of course, your mother will love whatever you give her, but sometimes it is worth going to the extra level to prove just how much you appreciate her.

If your mother is a bit of a culinary connoisseur, then you should consider ordering something special from Forman & Field. With a great array of hampers and gifts, Forman & Field can save your Mother's Day worries and make sure you're her favourite child.

With many savoury packages and hampers, here is a selection of some of the gifts perfect for those mothers with a sweet tooth:

L'Artisan Du Chocolat Assorted Truffles (£14.95)

Each pack delivers three uniquely delicious truffles that are guaranteed to have a chocoholic's mouth watering. There is a 70% cocoa dark chocolate truffle, a pave truffle that mixes layers of milk and dark, and a classic champagne chocolate truffle.

Dark Chocolate & Popping Candy Salted Caramel Lollies (£6.95)

Paul Wayne Gregory is one of the country's most celebrated chocolatiers. These lollies saw him win first prize in the Chocolates category at the Excellence in Food& Drink Awards 2010. The first-class chocolate and caramel ingredients are divine, with an added pop of candy for an extra surprise.

The Fudge Kitchen Favourites Selection (£16.28)

This is unlike any fudge you have tried before. Using a recipe dating back to 1830, this selection is super indulgent with creamy and rich characteristics. Flavours include: Belgian Chocolate Swirl, Maple Walnut, Vintage Vanilla, Jim's Traditional Toffee Fudge.
