ATLANTA, GA – April 7, 2011 – Onyx Pearl is pleased to announce the filming of the theatrical trailer for the feature film “Picture Me Blue No More” in Savannah. Said the director Perla Faye Humphrey, “We’re excited to film the trailer this spring. A completed trailer gives us an opportunity to showcase this remarkable story as we prepare to move into pre-production.”

PICTURE ME BLUE NO MORE (the movie)

Set in a poverty-stricken small town near Savannah, the film follows the life of Shelley MacDonald, a naive little girl with big dreams of going to college. But one dreadful night, the unimaginable takes place that spirals her innocent world into mayhem, rips her family apart, and catapults her on a self-destructive journey into womanhood as the barriers to a better life stack against her, and going to college becomes an elusive goal.
