Britain's best-loved pop icon is back! Following his triumphant 70th Birthday shows in 2010, Britain's undisputed King of Pop returns to the stage with a series of concerts in October 2011, and his legions of fans can get ready to sing along once again.

Having scored number one hits in each of the last five decades and sold a staggering 250 million records, Cliff is at his very best in his live shows, which provide a chance for him to share his unique magic with his fans. Nothing beats seeing Cliff in person, performing hits like rock 'n' roll standard 'Move It', pop-rock classic 'Devil Woman', beautiful ballads like 'Miss You Nights' and a vast array of favourites from across the years.

Specialist tour operator Newmarket Holidays is offering opportunities for Cliff's fans to see him perform live this year on the eagerly awaited 'Soullicious' tour. With superb-value concert packages starting at £189, there's no better way to experience what promises to be a night of pure pop magic.

Produced and directed by David Gest, this special UK arena concert tour will feature many of Cliff's classic hits, as well as music from his latest 'Soullicious' album. There will also be performances by some of the world's greatest soul legends – from Candi Staton to Percy Sledge – and duets with Cliff and his special guests.

Newmarket is offering Cliff Richard concert breaks to all of the 'Soulacious' venues, so fans from all over the UK can choose whether to see Cliff in London, Nottingham, Birmingham or Newcastle. Great-value concert breaks by coach - priced from £199 - offer the opportunity to see the pop legend and guests at the LG Arena, NEC Birmingham, the Metro Radio Arena, Newcastle, and the Classic FM Arena, Nottingham.

Newmarket's Cliff Richard coach trips include coach travel from local pick-up points across the UK, a visit to a place of interest on the return journey, one night's bed and breakfast accommodation, and transfers to the venue for the highlight of the trip - a spectacular evening of musical entertainment!

For Cliff fans who would prefer to make their own way, why not book a place on one of Newmarket's Cliff Richard hotel and concert ticket breaks? Prices include one night's bed and breakfast accommodation and hotel-to-venue transfers.

Starting at £189, Newmarket's Gold concert and ticket breaks offer the chance to see Cliff in Newcastle, Birmingham and Nottingham, and include a top-price concert ticket.

Priced from £199, Newmarket's fantastic Platinum concert and ticket breaks include a front-blocks-of-the-arena concert ticket and also offer fans the chance to see Cliff in concert at London's O2 – one of the UK's most prestigious music venues.

Newmarket's Cliff Richard concert breaks all include the services of a knowledgeable Tour Manager, to ensure the break is as smooth and comfortable as possible.
