DirectRooms.com can announce that the Salzburg Whitsun Festival will take place this summer in the famed Austrian city, bringing with it some of the best classical music in Europe.

The annual classical music and opera festival will take place this year from 10 to 13 June 2011.

Events taking place during the course of this exciting and cultural four-day event include classical music concerts, operatic performances, and films. Visitors will be able to select the events and performances that are most interesting to them.

The country of Austria is well known for its long history of contributions to classical music in the form of famous musicians and symphonies. The city of Salzburg is a strong cultural centre that continues to gather some of the best classical musicians from around the globe.

The festival is no different, with thousands expected to attend the performances throughout the four-days of events.

The historic city of Salzburg offers plenty of opportunity for visitors to soak in the unique and beautiful atmosphere of the country. Hotels throughout the city offer some of the best of both worlds, including luxury and affordability. Cheap Salzburg hotels are available for families and individuals on a budget.
