Louis Bertignac's Grizzly Tour will roll into Paris next month playing a mixture of classic hits and newer material.

The former Shakin' Street and Telephone guitarist has a huge back catalogue of songs to choose from, as he has also released a host of solo material and fronted Bertignac et Les Visiteurs.

He will take the stage at the Olympia Hall on June 8th and share his talent for freewheeling, guitar-led music with his adoring fans.

The concert provides travellers with an opportunity to appreciate the skill of the man who performed at Live 8 in 2005 and produced, arranged and played guitar on Carla Bruni's first album.

A former model, Bruni opted to release her debut LP in 2004 with the help of Bertignac and has since gone on to become the first lady of France, having married president Nicolas Sarkozy in 2008.

Tickets start from €40 (£34.85) and are available online. The gig will begin at 20:30 local time.

Hotels-Paris.co.uk features a host of discount hotels in Paris for fans looking for accommodation, including a range of options in the nearby Montmartre district.
