Baggage specialist Luggage Express is excited to be expanding its superb collection to include suitcases and bags from renowned brands such as Caribee, Picture Case, Lug and Troop.

A leading retailer of a wide range of quality baggage products, from cheap luggage to premium suitcase sets, Luggage Express offers next day delivery as standard – and can even arrange for same-day shipping if you need to prepare for a holiday at short notice.

Daypacks, satchels, sports bags and wheeled suitcases from Australian urban and adventure brand Caribee are now part of Luggage Express's selection, perfect for either a busy lifestyle or an active holiday. With over 50 years' experience of bag design and production, Caribee understands travellers' needs.

Known for their individual character, funky suitcases from Picture Case are also now available through Luggage Express, with stylish and fun choices for adults and children alike. Case designs for the latter comprise the Cuties And Pals range, each featuring a matching animal-shaped trolley case and backpack in forms such as Peko the penguin, Cheri the panda or Congo the monkey. Options for grown-ups include football teams and national flags.

Bags from ingeniously practical company Lug include large baby cases such as the Tuk Tuk, which features a range of customised compartments for various uses and two front pockets for bottles. Meanwhile, London designer range Troop has been meeting the needs of stylish travellers since 2005, using materials such as cotton and Italian leathers to retain a sophisticated appeal and hardwearing reliability.

David Elliot, Chairman of Excess Baggage, said: "Our baggage range has always been varied, but these new brands further enhance our multi-dimensional appeal to travellers of all styles and needs."

"Caribee, Picture Case, Lug and Troop all have very distinct identities, but as with all Luggage Express brands, they have something in common too – a dedication to high quality products."

"We also have an excellent discount range of cheap suitcases to suit those with a budget."

Luggage Express is part of leading luggage shipping business Excess Baggage Company, which has delivered a wide range of services at major airports and rail stations for nearly three decades. The organisation's blue chip clients include Gatwick Airport Ltd, Manchester Airport Group, Network Rail and Southern Rail.
