CALGARY, ALBERTA – June 28, 2011 – Hyatt Regency Calgary, a downtown Calgary hotel, has been selected Best in Accommodation, an inaugural category at Tourism Calgary's 49th annual White Hat of the Year Awards. The White Hat Awards, which were held on Wednesday, May 18th, highlight individuals and organizations, including downtown Calgary hotels, that enhance Calgary's reputation and presence in the tourism and hospitality industry, while providing outstanding customer service to guests.

Located in the heart of downtown Calgary on Stephen Avenue Walk, Hyatt Regency Calgary's historic sandstone buildings provide a one-of-a-kind setting among downtown Calgary hotels for more than 10,000 guests annually. Hyatt Regency Calgary offers four high-quality dining options, a renowned spa on location, and access to downtown Calgary's eateries, shopping centres, and entertainment venues. "Hyatt Regency Calgary is thrilled and honoured to be the recipient of the first-ever Best in Accommodation White Hat Award from Tourism Calgary," said Herb Rackliff, general manager, Hyatt Regency Calgary. "Hyatt employees are continually striving to deliver the highest-quality of service to guests and Calgarians alike, and it's a thrill to see our efforts recognized."

In total, 30 talented individuals employed at Hyatt Regency Calgary were nominated in the 2011 White Hat of the Year Awards, identifying industry professionals who exceed everyday expectations and consistently deliver excellent results.

Sarah Thompson of the Stillwater Spa, located at Hyatt Regency Calgary was named winner in the category Best Spa, Esthetics & Wellness Provider. At Stillwater Spa, Calgarians and guests of the downtown Calgary luxury hotel are pampered with luxurious and innovative treatments; providing a lavish and relaxing downtown retreat.

Catch Restaurant & Oyster Bar was selected as a finalist in the Best Restaurant category, White Hat of the Year Award. Catch offers tourists and locals their Jet Fresh seafood commitment; flying in seafood from both coasts so customers can savour the freshest cuisine.
