About the Metropolis Ballroom of Arlington Heights youth outreach

Our dedication to the arts offers unique opportunities for our community's growth: It gives our local youth a chance to perform in front of an audience as the ballroom's opening acts. We plan to do this for as many events as possible. The only requirement is the performers must be of junior high school or high school age, Under 21 years of age. They will be included on the website and in any other advertising for their show date. Plus, we invite the press and talent agents to every show. Who knows? Maybe we can even help bring our beloved community into the national spotlight by helping discover the next major musical talent! All youth group coordinators interested in scheduling a performance are urged to contact us via email at talent@PineManor401.com
