British Airways is launching its September sale with big savings on flights to over eighty worldwide destinations. The sale, which began on August 25 and runs until midnight on Tuesday, 20 September, offers up to 33 per cent off in economy, up to 45 per cent off in business class and up to 55 per cent off in first class.

With the kids back at school, those looking to take advantage of shorter queues at the theme parks can pick up a bargain on flights to Orlando or San Diego. For anyone wanting a total chill-out break there are savings on flights to the Caribbean including Puerto Rico, Barbados, Antigua and Cancun.

To jet-off in style and experience British Airways' award winning business cabin Club World flights to Cairo, Muscat, the Maldives and Japan are on offer. And for the ultimate in luxury, travel in British Airways' First cabin to the Caribbean, including Barbados, Grenada, St Lucia and Trinidad or escape to New York, Las Vegas or Los Angeles.

The sale also includes hundreds of great value holidays, including seven nights at the 3* All Seasons Resort for holidays in Barbados including flights from Gatwick and room only accommodation. Customers can also take advantage of a seven night all-inclusive holiday at the 4* Iberostar Punta Cana for holidays in the Dominican Republic.

For a bargain on a pre-Christmas shopping break, a three night stay at the 2.5* Midtown hotel in Boston or a three night holiday in Miami at the 3* Casablanca on the Ocean is on offer including flights from Heathrow and room only accommodation.

Closer to home, explore a city in Europe with one-way flights to Gothenburg, Paris and Zurich available. Alternatively grab a two night city-break to Lisbon staying at the 4* Turim Europa or two nights at the 4* Celuisma Florida Norte in Madrid including return flights from Heathrow and room only accommodation.

The sale started on August 25, 2011 for selected travel from September 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012.
