For four days this September, cycling enthusiasts of Paris will get the chance to see the best new products around as the Paris Cycle Show comes to the Porte de Versailles from September 16th-19th.

Visitors can feast their eyes on cycles ranging from showy BMXs to functional city bikes, as well as all manner of add-ons and accessories to enhance their biking experience.

There will be the opportunity to try out exciting new e-bikes and check out the latest trends on the catwalk, with exciting demonstrations revealing the capabilities of the bicycles on display.

The public can enjoy the first three days of the show at their leisure, but the final day is reserved for professionals to do their own browsing and purchasing.

Hotels-paris.co.uk has a number of stylish boutique hotels for visitors to enjoy in all areas of the city. Pershing Hall is just one of many establishments available.
