This August Newmarket Holidays will release its latest season of great-value air holidays and coach trips. As well as new dates on old favourites like our holidays to Lake Garda, Croatia holidays and Christmas Markets across Europe and the UK, for 2012 we will be offering an escorted tour to the USA to see grizzly bears along the banks of Canada's Blue River, a six-day exploration of the Lochs, Glens and Highlands of Scotland, and even a relaxed UK walking weekend for softies!

The flagship offering the Newmarket coach trips range, though, remains our London Theatre Breaks. Every year, we take almost 20,000 happy customers to the theatre to see some of the West End's best shows and musicals. And as well as enduring classics like The Phantom of the Opera and Les Miserables, and classics reimagined, like The Wizard of Oz, we're pleased to announce the introduction of four, fantastic new shows!

Ghost - from £113

Based on the 1990 blockbuster movie, Ghost The Musical opens at the opulent Piccadilly Theatre. With fantastic new music and lyrics by Dave Stewart and Glen Ballard, and brilliant special effects, this timeless fantasy of the eternal power of love between Sam and Molly, promises to be a real tear-jerker.

Betty Blue Eyes - from £99

It's 1947 in Austerity Britain and Betty the pig is being reared for the Royal Wedding banquet, whilst the local population make do with Spam. This hilarious – and utterly British musical – features a cast of eccentric characters, headed by the brilliant Sarah Lancashire. This nostalgic and warm-hearted show is a real smash-hit!

Shrek, the Musical - from £115

This year's must-see musical comedy follows everyone's favourite ogre as he sets off on a quest to rescue the beautiful Princess Fiona. Add in the diminutive Lord Farquaad, a gang of fairytale misfits and a biscuit with attitude, as well as some fantastic new songs, and you have an unmissable stage production of the hit film.

War Horse - from £159

Adapted from master storyteller Michael Morpugo's celebrated novel, this critically-acclaimed show follows the fortunes of Joey, a young farm horse, as he is sold to the army and thrust into the midst of the war on the Western Front. A moving story of desolation and courage, War Horse features incredible life-sized puppets, turning children's literature into gripping drama.

Each show is offered with coach travel from towns across the UK, a night in a four-star hotel with excellent leisure facilities, and a coach trip into central London on Sunday morning that'll give you the chance to indulge in a spot of shopping in one of the most vibrant cities in the world.

Book now because these theatre breaks look set to be the hottest tickets in town!
