With the prospect of three days of jaw-dropping races and demonstrations for Motocross fans, it is hardly surprising that this event is in its 29th year. Supercross Bercy is expected to attract some 36,000 spectators to the Palais Omnisports Paris Bercy for this much-anticipated event, with each biker tested to the limit by the challenging race programme.

With three gruelling challenges testing each rider's speed, technique and handling, there will be a lot of skill on show from these experts that will delight the watching crowd.

Home favourite Christophe Pourcel will face stiff competition from 2009 champion Justin Brayton, Honda youngster Eli Tomac and American pair Mike Alessi and Kyle Chisholm.

The race is spread over the weekend of October 28th-30th, and tickets cost around 80€ for the big races.
