With Christmas rapidly approaching, upmarket holiday provider Warner Leisure Hotels has offered an early festive treat for those who would otherwise struggle to find time to celebrate this yuletide.

Although we're only just into the autumn, October is traditionally the time when many people start making their preparations for the impending celebrations. However, more and more of us are working for longer than ever before and taking fewer holidays – which is why Warner Leisure Hotels is providing a handy alternative when it comes to Christmas breaks.

As part of its Turkey and Tinsel offering next month, the chain will give its hotels - from the charming Lakeside Coastal Resort in Hampshire to the stunning Thoresby Hall Hotel in Nottinghamshire - a festive makeover, allowing guests to make the most of the Christmas and New Year period, albeit a few weeks ahead of schedule.

"We know that not everyone will be able to find the time to really see in the festive period with a bang this year, which is why we're confident our Turkey and Tinsel breaks will prove popular," said Jason Riseborough, Marketing Manager of Warner Leisure Hotels. "As well as turning our hotels in to Warner winter wonderlands, we'll also be laying on some top-quality entertainment to help our guests get the most out of their early Christmas celebrations."

Warner Leisure Hotels owns 13 venues located across the UK, including six Grade I or II-listed historic hotels. While each resort boasts its own unique character, they all offer a range of classy accommodation, excellent facilities and a warm welcome.
