Merrick, New York, November 29, 2011 – Creations by Leslie, a leading online retailer of customizable wedding, baby shower, party and holiday invitations, theme stationary, tableware and party favors, today announced the release of several traditional holiday invitations from the Odd Balls paper company. These classically-inspired invitations allow customers to feature the tradition and beloved feeling of the holiday season with designs and pictures that truly put people in the mood for the holidays.

“There is nothing like the classic holiday party, whether it’s a party celebrating Christmas, Chanukah, Kwanza or just the holiday spirit of togetherness,” says Leslie Barlow, Creations by Leslie. “At Creations by Leslie, we know that the first step to any successful holiday party is a great holiday invitation, which is why we offer our customers hundreds of different options, including a line of traditional holiday invitations from the Odd Balls paper company.”

Creations by Leslie is proud to offer a handful of newly released Odd Balls’ designed holiday initiations. Based in Arkansas, Odd Balls has been producing high quality, classically-based invitations for nearly two decades. New selections include the “Bella Bell” invitations, whose classic design is right for nearly any holiday party; the "Urban Fir" invitations, which celebrate Christmas time in the big city; and "Tea with the Queen", which was made specifically for holiday tea parties. These, like all invitations at Creations by Leslie, can be customized quickly and easily for any holiday party. Customers can find more on holiday invitations.

Creations by Leslie customers can choose to either order blank card stock for home printing, or have the invitations custom printed to specifications in shop. Creations by Leslie allows customers to enter personalized invitation wording online where it will be placed on the invitation by an expert typesetter. A proof will be sent directly to by e-mail on the next business day giving the customer a chance to preview and make changes to the customized invitation. Nothing will be printed and customers will not be charged until the proof is approved. More information can be found on the process at www.creationsbyleslie.com/faqs.html.
