July 02, 2012, 6:40 am -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- Admiral MultiCar is adding two new benefits to all its car insurance policies that start from 1st July onwards. MultiCar customers will be able to claim up to £300 for loss of or damage to child seats, booster seats, prams or pushchairs as a result of an accident, fire or theft. They will also be able to claim up to £300 for a handbag or its contents.

Admiral acting managing director, David Halliday, commented: "Being involved in an accident or having your car broken into can be an incredibly stressful experience, but this can be made even worse for families due to the paraphernalia they need to carry in their car.

"Current laws require parents to secure their children in appropriate car seats or booster seats. These can be damaged after any accident, even if they don't seem to be, it's best to replace them as they may not function correctly in the future. The last thing a parent would want to do is risk their child's safety so it's better to be safe rather than sorry."

Within the £300 cover for child equipment, MultiCar insurance customers will be able to claim up to £50 for loss or damage to children's accessories such as changing bags or sun blinds.

The new items covered are in addition to the standard cover of £100 for personal belongings damaged or stolen.

An Admiral MultiCar policy can hold up to five cars and offers a discount on all the vehicles on cover, the more cars on cover, the larger the discount. Admiral MultiCar is not available on any price
