Small is Fun Sized: This world scratch map has been shrunk to 42 x 29.7 cm and that doesn't mean it has lost anything. It has only gained a lot more on the flipside like:

- Some handy travel etiquette tips to make your journeys easier and incident free.
- Blank map to plan your next trip.
- Marky our favourite destination on the trip.
- Get funky with your most loved music track.
- Ownership information.

Sturdy Gift Tube: You can take this scratch map with you wherever you go, thanks to the sturdy gift tube that it comes rolled up in. Dump it in your backpack or suitcase and take it out to scratch off a place as soon as you reach it. Never again be away from your scratch map. There is a luggage tag on the gift tube to mark it as your own.

Why Only Luckies: But no matter what kind of map, none of the imitators have been able to make scratch maps with the same love and zeal as Luckies of London and how could they. For Luckies, scratch maps are their babies, they invented them. Till date, no copycat has managed to replicate their passion and quality.
