

Tarps Now® Increases Available Stock to Meet Increasing Demand for Tarps

St. Joseph, Michigan, United States, 2019-Nov-05 — /EPR Network/ — Company increases availability of stock sizes tarp fabrics to meet rapid increases in demand by of governmental bodies, municipalities, businesses and residential customers

Tarps Now® is pleased to announce increased levels of available merchandising of stock sized Industrial Grade Tarps and Industrial Fabrics used by governmental bodies, businesses and residential customer in the context of disaster recovery resulting from hurricanes, storms, tornados and wildfires throughout North America and the Caribbean.

With ready access to higher grade Industrial Tarps not being available in retail stores, the advance purchases of stock sized Industrial Tarps and Industrial Fabrics greatly enhances the ability to mitigate damages and preserve assets that have not been destroyed by extended periods of heavy rainfall, storm surge, or losses related to wildfires.

To meet this need, Tarps Now® has increased its complete line of Industrial Grade Tarps and Tarp Fabric products for sale to the public, businesses, state, federal, military and other governmental agencies through their website. The company also provides online ordering of custom tarps fabricated to the specifications of its customers and delivered on site to meet the specific needs of each project or application. No other firm provides the depth and breadth of tarp products and other industrial grade fabrics specifically engineered to meet the needs of hurricane disaster recovery.
